SYLVIA by A.R. Gurney

First Rehearsal: Monday, April 1, 2019

Performances: April 25 – May 12, 2019

ROLES

SYLVIA: Female, 21-40 yrs. A stray dog found by Greg; she is lively and expressive, attractive; though she does not move on hands and knees for the entire play, the role requires a small degree of physicality; actress should be convincing as a cute, bouncy female “labradoodle” as well as being occasionally flirtatious.

GREG: Male, 45-60 Yrs. Displays a wide range of quiet male emotion; he loves his suddenly-adopted dog Sylvia but seems to be going through an early midlife crisis in his work and his marriage.

KATE: Female, 45-60 yrs. A middle-aged, college educated woman who, with her kids finally out of the house, is excited and ready to finally be able to focus on her marriage and her own career in academia.

TOM/LESLIE: Male, 35-60 yrs. One actor plays both roles. Tom is a man in the dog park, manly and philosophical at the same time; Leslie is an androgynous psychiatrist who lets the clients choose his/her gender during their sessions, comic relief character.
